

WALL ST. STOCK REPORTS.

Northern Pacifics Raided by Wall Street Speculators.

Tumors of a Big Deal Impending in Manhattan "L."

Union Pacific Lower on Tumors of a Bad Statement Coming.

Wall Street, Friday, May 13.—There was considerable pressure to sell Northern Pacific preferred again today. The street is convinced that the May dividend will be passed, and it is expected that the directors will meet next week and take final action in the matter.

The tumours of the stock had no influence on the general market, which was strong, and almost buoyant for Manhattan elevated, congo, Edison, General, Hocking Valley, Conness, coal and iron preferred, Western Union, Hocking Valley, and Atlantic. Manhattan rose to about 130. The belief is that an important deal is on foot, involving the transfer of a block of the stock to a syndicate of bankers.

The bears made a very successful raid on the railroad list this afternoon. Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, preferred and Atchafalaya having been conspicuously weak. The decline was assisted by the announcement of further engagements of gold for shipment to Europe. In the stocks mentioned "stop" orders were reached, but holders having finally decided to hold.

Crude advanced to 108 on purchases to cover exports. Hocking Valley and Hocking Valley went up to 45 on a dispatch from Boston that Judge Nelson, of the United States District Court, has quashed the first indictment found against the Whiskey Trust officials, Joseph B. Greenhut and others. Hocking Valley rose to 205, on talk of a close alliance with the Union Pacific.

Union Pacific closed over 2 points today and it was rumored that the April showing of the company will be a failure.

Holders were to close out of a new issue of bonds by the Atchafalaya. The stock closed about 100 on the report of a new issue of $1,000,000.

Hocking Valley was active and advanced to 40, but subsequently receded 1 1/2 from the highest.

At 2:30 today I have heard the rumor that the Broadway Trust Company has bid $140 for control of Manhattan Elevated, but I have not had time to verify it.

Atchafalaya, Manhattan & West will ship $400,000 gold to Europe tomorrow.

The Treasury secretary today purchased $5,000,000 of silver at 88.40, and the offerings were 62,500 ounces. The Treasury also purchased $1,000,000 of gold at 108.

Andrew Mills, President of the Erie Dock Savings Institution, was today elected President of the Erie Dock Savings Institution, in place of Willis B. Palmer.

The total sales of the New York Stock Exchange today were 284,200 shares of listed stocks and 27,000 ounces of silver.

HORSES AND HOUNDS.

Hunters and Packs Shown Together on Manhattan Field.

Fine Card for the Fifth Day of the Open-Air Horse Show.

Mounted Park Police to Give an Exhibition in the Evening.

As the big outdoor horse show at Manhattan Field, Eighth Avenue and One Hundred and Fifty-fifth Street, draws near its close the attendance is increasing. The high water mark was reached yesterday, when over 6,000 people filled the grounds.

This morning there still remained three of the classes postponed from Wednesday to be judged, and there was a good-sized crowd on hand when the exercises commenced at 10 o'clock.

Vigorous dressing had put the quarter-mile track in almost perfect condition. The turf, too, had dried out so much that it was thought possible to go on with class 101, for horses making the best and fastest performance over six fencibles a foot or two higher because of the slippery, spongy condition of the turf.

The programme for this afternoon, and evening, promises to be good things. The livery stable championship will be decided, Fashib, Berserker, Blue Peter, Forest Swell and Eclipse contesting for the prize.

A pretty scene should be provided by the contest for the $200 prize offered by H. A. Carey for the master showing of less than five couple of hunters and quaterns in the afternoon. The contest will be held at the Westchester County Hunt Club and the Westchester Hunt Club are the contestants.

This evening twenty-three mounted park policemen will give a practical exhibition of how roadway teams and saddle horses are stopped and caught.

This is the programme arranged for the day: 10 p. m.—Judging light-weight hunters. 11 p. m.—Judging coaching stations. 12 p. m.—Judging jumping points and middle-weight hunters. 12:30 p. m.—Judging livery stable for exhibition.

10 p. m.—Judging high-steppers. 11 p. m.—Judging middle-weight hunters. 12 p. m.—Judging harnesses out of harness. 12:30 p. m.—Judging harnesses out of harness.

50,000 MEN MAY STRIKE. GOVERNOR SIGNS 38 BILLS.

If Granite Cutters Are Locked Out Others Will Follow.

Among Them the Ward's Island and Park Police Pension Acts.

Unless there is a change before to-morrow night in the attitude of the contractors who are not agreed to, the pavers' union on the other side will be inaugurated next Monday.

Present indications there is not much prospect of either side making any concessions.

The contractors had warned the pavers that all granite workers and quarries will be locked out Monday if the former's terms are not agreed to. If the lockout does take place the building stone workers, engineers, derrickmen and other unions say they will quit work.

This will make a total of between 40,000 and 50,000 men affected by the strike.

The governor vetoed the bill appropriating $50,000 for improving and increasing the lockage capacity of the state canals, also vetoed the bill appropriating $100,000 to promote agriculture, hatching, manufactures, encourage the raising of poultry and to improve the breed of stock in the state.

KLEZEWSKI DIES OF HIS WOUND. Unsuccessful in Love and Out of Work, He Shot Himself.

Signaled by Klezewski, the young Philadelphian who shot himself in Joseph Phillips' bakery at 1309 Third Avenue Wednesday morning, died at the Presbyterian Hospital early this morning.

Dependancy resulting from inability to find work and disappointment in love were the two causes that led to the act of self-destruction.

Klezewski had been in this country about a year. He formerly worked for a 30-year-old baker at Park Avenue and East Eighty-ninth Street. He fell in love with a girl named Mary, who he had known since childhood.

THE WIVES OF A GIRL-WIFE. Unless the City Cares for Her She Will Kill Herself.

A pretty little girl in a short dress was taken to the station Police court this morning by Agent Williams of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. She had been refused to support her and that unless she was committed to some institution to be cared for she would commit suicide.

The girl described herself as Mrs. Sarah Duff, nee Pendleton, and said that she was fifteen years old. She was married to Donald Duff, a variety actor, on April 11, and although they had not lived together, she said, he had not given her a cent towards her support.

Two days later, Sarah told the Justice, Donald began to beat and threaten her, and she went crying to her mother and brother who she had done. Arrangements were then made to have the husband and girl-wife together. They went to the girl's home in the city.

The first day there, Sarah, continuing to be ill-treated, said that she was fifteen years old. She was married to Donald Duff, a variety actor, on April 11, and although they had not lived together, she said, he had not given her a cent towards her support.
